"A great trip thanks to Joann!

Carolyn and I recently returned from a 35-day wonderful adventure to New Zealand and Australia that was seamlessly organized by Joann Austin.

Throughout the process, she was always there to guide us, make reservations, ensure visa compliance and offer great suggestions. Our trip included air arrangements from Pensacola to Auckland, back-to-back cruises on Celebrity Solstice and air arrangements from Sydney to Pensacola along with lodging before and after. Other than truly efficient handling of all requests, we appreciate the fact that she has traveled extensively including a variety of cruises.

We first met Joann and Wally onboard Celebrity Equinox. We were so impressed with her extensive background knowledge and willingness to help and resolve any issue, we decided to shift our travel arranging to her instead of using a local travel agent in Pensacola.

We are looking forward to many future adventures arranged by Joann."

Sincerely,
Carolyn and Bob S.

Stuck at the Airport? Four Pointers for More Productive Waits...

We've all been there. In spite of the most sophisticated infrastructure in all aspects of Aviation, some situations are out the control of even the most savvy traveler like delayed flights, long lines in security or computer system glitches. They say that patience is a virtue and Smart Meetings points out a few very virtuous plans to keep in mind the next time you encounter a longer than expected wait at the airport.
