everything up perfectly for us and this was a remarkable cruise to the Baltic.

Our eyes were really opened wide on this journey - everything was stunning.

The trip home was really uneventful going through customs in Chicago and SAS partnered with United and so it was so easy to walk through customs and twenty feet further we handed our bags to someone and we left terminal five and went to terminal one so easily.

Thanks to everyone for their superb professionalism and management of our wonderful experience on Regents Seven Seas Voyager.
her.

Sincerely,

The A380 is the largest passenger aircraft by weight, tipping the scales at 560 tons (that's 1,235,000 pounds, or 165 elephants). About 3,000 suitcases can fit in the cargo hold. With a wingspan of 262 feet, the double-decker A380 doesn't just hold a lot of travelers. The A380 can also accommodate cushier arrangements in the upper classes, such as double beds in an enclosed area (Singapore Airline's Suite Class) and a posh three-room suite serviced by a butler known as Etihad's The Residence.
