When to Cruise Where...

There's no bad time to go to the Caribbean, but perhaps you didn't know that January and February (when the weather is mild, and before spring break increases the rates) is considered the ideal time to take a cruise to Belize. Or that folks cruising through Southeast Asia in February and March are the least likely to encounter mugginess. Or that tulips make April the perfect time to traverse the waters near Amsterdam.

wonderful trip for us and I plan on calling her next year.

I used to handle all of the details for our trips not knowing how many things I was overlooking and the worry that it was going to come together.

Pam handles everything from flights to airport transfers to top hotels and the whole package and doesn't miss a thing with no worries, it's truly a vacation to remember."

Thanks,
Donald M.

American Airlines to Debut International Premium Economy in November...

American Airlines, the world's largest airline, will be the first U.S. carrier to offer a true premium economy cabin as opposed to a premium economy lite offering that merely provides extra legroom and additional seat recline. The seats will make their appearance on the airline's new Boeing 787-9 Dreamliners, which will begin flying international routes in November.
