Viking adds new resident historian program to Mediterranean ocean cruises...

Ready to be schooled in history on your next cruise? Viking Cruises has created a new resident historian program on its ocean ships that goes way beyond the usual on-board lectures. This team of historians lead refresher courses on the history of European art, music, architecture and other cultural subjects. Viking describes the program in a statement as providing passengers with "high-level historical and cultural education that is specific to their journey ..."

World's Busiest Airport in 2016 was Atlanta, Again...

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport is forecast to take the 2016 title as the "World's Busiest Airport." It would mark the 19th consecutive year Atlanta's airport counted more passengers than any other airport on the planet.

That's according to the preliminary full-year passenger numbers for 2016 released Wednesday by the Airports Council International (ACI) trade group. Though preliminary, the rankings are unlikely to change when the "final" numbers are confirmed later this year.
