We had a wonderful time and everything went very smoothly thanks to your careful planning. Our hotel reservations were made, occasionally we were met with champagne and a fruit platter thanks to your agency's privileges, breakfast was always included and I know at Balmoral and De Crillon our rooms were upgraded to a larger suite.

Every transfer showed up in a timely manner and the drivers were professional and courteous.

Our guides were all there and professional and knowledgeable. The train / plane tickets were accurate and every detail from the perfumery to the cooking classes went off without a hitch.

Thank you again for all of your assistance."

Warm regards,
Mary and Stephanie T.

Potential Passport Crisis Heating Up...

If your passport is expiring this year, you better renew it soon, the State Department said last week. About 125 million Americans hold passports today, and 40% of them-almost 50 million in all-will expire in the next three years.

It's been 10 years since the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative first required passports for Americans traveling home from Mexico, Canada, the Caribbean, or Bermuda-and the State Department anticipates a surge in demand for new ones as they all reach their expiration date a decade later.
