QUOTE OF THE DAY

"If you can find something that you're really passionate about, whether you're a man or a woman comes a lot less into play. Passion is a gender-neutralizing force."

King put forth in coordinating an amazing trip through Paris France for Julie and me.

It had been Julie's dream to someday visit Paris. Dwayne and ARTA Travel put together a trip across France that far exceeded her most lavish dreams.

Not only was this trip like something you would see on "Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous", but he worked in our behalf to maximize or budget and get the most for our money.

I was truly impressed with his efforts and it's because of Mr. King that we will use ARTA Travel again in the future.

Further, I intend to recommend ARTA Travel and Mr. King to anyone looking for an amazing adventure.

Sincerely expressed,

Robert W. and Julie T.

TSA Tests New Carry-On Screening...

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) is testing new procedures at 10 U.S. airports that require people to carry less in their carry-ons. Carry-on bags are just too cluttered, making it hard for screeners to do their jobs-which is to find explosives, the TSA said. In addition to their laptops, passengers are being asked to remove all devices larger than a cellphone, including tablets and e-readers, as well as food and books, and place them in separate bins. Passengers in the TSA's PreCheck program will not be subject to the new screening procedures.
